The hotel industry keeps evolving with a healthy clip of new hotel renovations. Here are a few notable ones

Hutton Hotel in Nashville

Locates steps away from Music Row in Nashville,

Hutton Hotel has recently undergone a multimillion-phase renovation which includes the creation of two Writers' Studios.

The Writers' Studios were designed by musicians Dierks Bentley and Ryan Tedder.

The hotel has 250 guestrooms, including 52 suites and three penthouse suites. The building is a landmark built in 1970. The hotel opened in 2008. The recent renovation added a 5,000 square-foot cocktail bar, entertainment venue and writer's creative spaces for musician guests.

The property also has WestEnd Kitchen and Bar offering traditional Southern cuisine.
